VOTED LEADER IN REPUBLICAN PARTY CALLED BY DEATH

Had Been a Member of the Senate Since 1897
—Was a Republican of the "Old Guard"
And Chief Lieutenant of Quay—Was An Unyielding Foe of Wilson Administration

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Boise Penrose, senior senator from Pennsylvania, died suddenly at his hotel apartment here tonight from pulmonary thrombosis. He had been ill since Tuesday, at first with a severe cold, which rallied quickly to treatment. On Thursday his condition became more serious. He made little progress toward recovery from that time.

It was not until late today, however, that his physician, Roy D. Adams, realized that his condition was desperate. Heroic efforts were made to save him and while it was realized that he was gravely ill, his death was described as sudden.

Worn out by a long illness a year or more ago, which kept him long from the senate, Senator Penrose came back early in the year and for the last few months was working in his old time legislative form on the tax bill which takes effect tomorrow. With this out of the way he took up the tariff, attending daily meetings of the committee, often overtaxing his strength.

OFFICIALS SAY NEW YEAR SHOWS MUCH PROMISE

Believe Year Will be One of Steady Improvement

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Such promise in the new year as seen by Secretaries Hoover and Weeks, who in statements issued tonight declared the American people could look forward to 1922 as a year of recuperation.

"Considering that we have gone through the greatest war in history and considering the dangers that we have passed through in the great readjustment of 1921," said Secretary Hoover, "we have a lot to be cheerful about, and we have ahead of us very substantial hopes of steady improvement both at home and abroad."

"The industrial and social upheaval resulting from the war reached its crisis during the old year," said Secretary Weeks. "The period of adjustment has been trying for the people and government alike, but the rapidity with which the American people have been putting their affairs in order in the past few months makes the outlook for complete industrial adjustment and resulting prosperity during the coming year very bright."

BOLSHEVISM IS KILLING RUSSIA

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Under Bolshevism the population of Russia was gradually dying out, even before the famine, says a report from Sergei Maslov, former vice president of the All-Russian congress of peasants delegates, who has just escaped to Paris. The report made public here by A. J. Sack, director of the Russia Information Bureau, gives statistics credited to the commissariat of health, showing the death rate in Russia rose from 25.4 for every thousand persons in 1917 to 74.9 in 1919, while the birth rate dropped from 39.4 to 13 in that period.

Exact data for twelve provincial governments within Russia showed population declines from 25,195,978 in 1916 to 22,226,513 in 1920, the report set forth.

BANK ROBBERS ESCAPE POSSES

Pleasant Hill, Ill., Dec. 31.—Posses tonight were returning from a search for five automobile bandits who early today blew the safe of the Pleasant Hill Citizens' Aid Bank and escaped with $4,000. Bank officials expressed the opinion that the men constitute a part of a gang of bank robbers who have operated in this section of the state.

MORE COUNCILS IN IRELAND ARE FOR THE TREATY

Vote of Cork County Council a Close
One

(By The Associated Press)
DUBLIN, Dec. 31.—One of the narrowest majorities in favor of the Irish treaty was recorded today by the Cork county council, which voted 16 to 14, at a meeting specially summoned by the lord mayor.

A resolution was moved proposing to leave the decision to the Dail Eireann but after long discussion an amendment was carried to the effect that "as there is no alternative to acceptance, the treaty should be ratified."

After a ratification resolution was carried by the Donegal county council, one of the members, Mr. Duffy, formally presented his resignation saying he was unable to accept the treaty, but realized that a great majority of his constituents desired ratification.

The Cavan council and the Tipperary Urban council were among many other bodies adopting resolutions in favor of ratification.

Owing to the uncertainty of Ireland's future, recruiting has been suspended temporarily to all Irish infantry regiments except the Irish Guards.

It is evident that the Sinn Fein organization is seriously divided and whatever the decision the Dail Eireann reaches, the country will be ranged in two hostile camps unless a compromise is speedily effected of which there is not yet indications.

Ratification is regarded as certain but that will not terminate the controversy. Technically no official step for ratification has yet been taken. It will be the duty of the British government to accept the decision.

For Ratification Only

The meeting will be for the sole purpose of ratification and the members will not meet again. There will thus be during the tenure of the provisional government which that government can be responsible, except the Dail Eireann, which technically is still an illegal organization.

Arthur Griffith and his colleagues might recognize the authority of the Dail, but the provisional government will by agreement include some representatives of the former unionist minority in Ireland who could not be expected to do so and would recognize their authority as derived solely from the crown.

These circumstances might increase the difficulties of the new government in the transition period and lay it open to republican attack. The whole feature largely turns on the fate of the Dail Eireann. Some think it will automatically go out of existence, and on ratification be superseded by the provisional government.

The republican army depends on and takes orders from the Dail Eireann. If the Dail continues to function with the army at its command it must in effect control the provisional government. This is the difficult situation which Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins have to face.

GOOD RESULTS ARE EXPECTED TO COME FROM CONFERENCE

Thought That Remedial Measures and a Permanent Farm Policy Will Result from the Negotiations—Now Working on a List of Those Who Will Take Part in Sessions

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Remedial measures to meet the present farm situation and laying down a permanent policy for development of a self-sustaining agriculture are expected to result from the national agricultural conference to be called by Secretary Wallace at the request of President Harding. The conference, it was indicated today, probably would meet about January 15, in Washington.

Farmers and representatives of co-related lines interested in farmers products will make up the personnel of the conference which, it was said today, would number between 100 and 150. Farmers organizations, manufacturers of farmers' products, transportation interests, marketing agencies, shipping interests, fertilizer makers, farm implement manufacturers, packers, state agricultural and state agricultural college representatives, cotton, grain, livestock, fruit commission men, experts on rural, and social problems and bankers are expected to be included in the membership of the conference.

An official of the agricultural department today asserted that the conference in finding measures for relieving the distress of the farmers would at the same time be reviving business of all lines thru restoration of the farmers purchasing power.

Secretary Wallace and his advisers worked hard today completing the list of those who will be asked to the conference. Special attention was given to each prospective name in order to get the best qualified and constructive membership possible from a national standpoint.

The conference, it was indicated, authoritatively will first meet and map out its own program of work. It was suggested that the members probably would then divide themselves into committees along lines of production, transportation, manufacturing and marketing, and these in turn would have sub-committees on each of the agricultural products such as wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco fruit and the like.

Questions of transportation, agricultural financing, utilization of land resources, forestry policies on land leasing which would include contracts and rents, various aspects of marketing, including statistics, warehousing and terminal developments and rural and social life in the opinion of agriculture department officials probably would be on the program of the conference.

Policies respecting more efficient production and involving control of animal and plant diseases it was thought would evolve from the conference deliberations. This would include a new national policy for fighting the Boll Weevil which worked such disastrous results in many sections of the cotton belt last year and for eradication of the corn borer which has appeared on the edge of the corn belt.

WEALTHY IOWA MAN IS BEING HELD ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Suspected of Killing Married Couple on His Farm

(By The Associated Press)
DECORAH, Iowa, Dec. 31.—Frank B. Kneeskern, wealthy stock buyer of Castalia, who was arrested early today in connection with the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Brocklin, was released on $15,000 bonds here late this afternoon. He will be given a preliminary hearing Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock before Mayor Conover.

Kneeskern was arrested immediately after the hearing of Elmer Van Brocklin, brother of the murdered man, was concluded yesterday. He had been here as a witness at the hearing which was held behind closed doors and had been in progress two weeks.

Elmer Van Brocklin was released following completion of the first hearing.

The nature of the evidence which prompted Winnebago county authorities to take the stock buyer into custody has not been made public.

Kneeskern this morning was granted a change of venue from the court of Justice Barthell who presided at the Van Brocklin hearing. Mayor Conover will preside at Tuesday's hearing.

Kneeskern is about 38 years old, married and has one child. He is the owner of a beautiful residence in Castalia and of much land in that vicinity. The log cabin home in which the Van Brocklins were murdered is on his land between Castalia and Frankville.

OFFICERS KEPT CLOSE WATCH ON CHICAGO'S THIRSTY

New Yorkers Also Found it Hard to Get a Drink

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—Two weeks of preparation by Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris to "make Chicago so dry it squeaks" culminated when 5,000 policemen, bolstered by scores of prohibition agents, went in search of liquor law violators.

Rules of conduct for thousands of mid-night merry-makers as laid down by Chief Fitzmorris, were simple:

"Do not carry 'hip liquor.'"

"Do not ask your waiter to bring you anything with a 'kick in it.'"

"Do not accept the invitation of anyone to 'have a drink.'"

Despite the ruling of Judge Prindiville in police court yesterday, that the police could not search homes or persons without search warrants, the police received orders to make arrests without warrants.

"Let them tell it to the judge Tuesday morning," were the instructions. "New Year's will be over by then anyway—and two days in a cell will help sober them."

Society's merry-making was under the same surveillance as the resorts "back of the yards." Police officers in evening dress helped the elite to usher in the New Year and kept a lookout for liquor law violators.

An initial salvo at liquor law violators was fired today when prohibition agents confiscated 640 gallons of beer in a truck, the driver of which said he had obtained the wet goods from the Keely Brewing company, a Chicago concern.

SIX POWER TREATY BROUGHT FORTH FROM ARMS NEGOTIATIONS

Under it the United States, Japan, and The Netherlands Will Fall Heir to Germany's Former Pacific Cables—The Far East Negotiations Not to Promising, However

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The United States, Japan and The Netherlands fall heir to Germany's former Pacific cables under a tentative six power treaty brought forth today in the arms negotiations.

While expert sub-committees worked on left-over details of the naval discussions the delegates of the United States, Japan, Great Britain, France, Italy and The Netherlands came to a general accord over the cable problem.

Under the proposal yet to be formally accepted, the United States would secure title to the Yap-Guam cable, Japan would secure the Yap-Shanghai line, The Netherlands would become possessed of the section connecting Yap and Menado.

The settlement would expand but not invalidate the agreement previously reached between the United States and Japan alone for a grant of American cable and wireless rights on Yap island.

The two together would finally end the controversy over Yap and the cables which began at Versailles.

Of the expert sub-committees three reached agreements and a fourth reported substantial progress.

The sub-committee on aircraft completed a report said to recommend against any present attempt at limitation of air armament, and to warn against any restrictions that might curtail commercial aerial development.

Drafting of the Root resolution on submarine warfare regulation was completed by another sub-committee. Only minor verbal changes were made in the original proposal to re-affirm existing principles of international law in respect to search and seizure.

Naval experts in still another conference sub-division agreed on a standard international "ton" measurement, to be applied hereafter in naval discussions in place of the varying units of measure now in use.

The sub-committee which is charged with completing details of the naval limitation plan, including determination of methods of scrapping and replacement of vessels will meet Monday.

In the Far Eastern negotiations results were not so promising. China reasserted her desire to bring the deadlocked Shanghai problem before the full conference and to again request conference discussion of the twenty-one demands. Japan will oppose both proposals, and there are indications that she will not be alone.

Meantime cable advice regarding the conference at Cannes and indications among various delegations here revived discussion of a possible change or attitude on the part of France, which would permit an agreement in the not far distant future on submarines and auxiliary craft.

Along with these speculations has developed new interest in the proposal of President Harding for future world conferences that may be the beginning of an association of nations. That proposal is one of the most persistent elements of the negotiations here and may be brought to the point of final action before the conference quits.

BRUNDAGE SAYS SMALL MAY FACE SERIOUS CHARGE

Issues Statement in Reply to That of Governor

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—Gov. Len Small's statement yesterday that he had been vindicated on impeachment charges against him by the action of Judge Claire C. Edwards at Waukegan, Thursday, was today called an attempt to influence jurors and possibly a case of contempt of court in a reply by Attorney General Brundage.

His statement follows:

"Governor Small's statement issued after the court proceedings Thursday seems to me to be a contempt of court in which the governor's case may be tried next month. It is a publication manifestly intended to influence prospective jurors and affect the result of the trial. The great question of how it is to be dealt with, however, is obviously one for the court."

"Having in mind what was done on motions to quash in the guise of presentation of law points in this last act by parties to the trial, the attorney general's statement emphasized the necessity of remembering that this is a suit pending in court and should be dealt with as such."

"The quashing of an indictment by the foreman of a jury failed to sign the bill of indictment is a queer conceit of a vindication. The fact caused the grand jury indictment remain."

That the place to deposit money in banks is proven again by a recent Jacksonville happening. In these days with sound banking institutions there is no good reason for the hoarding of money in hiding places. Sooner or later the story of the keeping of money by this method leaks out and unfortunate results follow.

The Pabst brewery at Milwaukee is to be converted into a condensed and malted milk plant. There will be accompanying lines of chocolate and food products. This statement is in answer to the question of what the largest brewers think about the permanency of the 18th amendment.

When the state recently asked for bids on a large quantity of cement the figures presented by the companies presented a remarkable similarity. There have been charges for years that the cement manufacturers have a combination for the control of prices, but thus far nobody has been able to prove any illegal combination.

It will be glad news to the people of Jacksonville that action has been taken resulting in the reduction of the tax rate to $6.73. The estimate of the rate given recently was $7.05 and it is the best news of the day to present the revised figures. It is granted that taxes are necessary and cannot be escaped, but the prospect of unusually high taxes this year was anything but alluring to the property owners.

Speaking of taxes, an official of the federal reserve bank at Philadelphia has figured out that before the war the average American family of five was taxed $23.00 a year—$1.15 for debt charges, $23.10 for military expenses, and $8.75 for other government expenses. Now the same average family is taxed $214.80 per year—$43.25 for debt charges, $54.10 for military expenses, and $117.45 for other government expenses. Corresponding figures for Italy are $643.65; France, $633.20; and Great Britain, $548.90.

A farm parley is the next thing on the program at Washington and it presents the prospect of improvement for the difficult agricultural situation. That is the very purpose of the conference which the president has asked Secretary Wallace to call. It is hoped that some plan may be worked out for immediate relief and then something further in the way of a permanent agricultural policy. The employment conference brought practical results. The peace conference accomplished not everything that was purposed, but enough to make it rank as the most important international gathering ever held. So it is only reasonable to look forward to the agricultural conference as giving promise or certain beneficial results.

THE DEATH OF SENATOR PENROSE.

The death of Senator Bois Penrose of Pennsylvania came suddenly Saturday night but not entirely without warning. Senator Penrose was far advanced in years and his failing health has been a matter of common knowledge. It was because of ill health that he was unable to attend the last national Republican convention. Nevertheless he was accorded with having a great deal to do with the action of the convention in the nomination of President Harding. It was said at the time that a number of the leaders at the convention kept in touch with the Pennsylvania senator by wire and he definitely opposed the nomination of Gov. Lowden and several others earlier looked upon as the logical candidates.

Often condemned as a reactionary and a representative of the old guard in the Republican party, Senator Penrose nevertheless frequently gave proof of his foresight in governmental business and his clear understanding of many of the larger problems that confront the United States. With the late Senator Knox he conspicuously represented the great state of Pennsylvania in national affairs thru a period of years.

THE NEW YEAR.

(By Horatio Nelson Powers, the Globe-Democrat.)
A flower unknown; a book unread;
A tree with fruit unharvested;
A path untrod; a house whose rooms
Lack yet the heart's divine perfume;
A landscape whose wide border lies
In silent shade, 'neath silent skies;
A wondrous fountain yet unsealed;
A casket with its gifts concealed;
This is the year that for you waits
Beyond Tomorrow's mystic gates.

Oh, may this flower unfold to you Visions of beauty sweet and new;
This book on golden pages trace
Your sacred joys and deeds of grace.
May all the fruits of this strange tree
Luscious and rosy-tinted be;
This path thru fields of knowledge go;
This house with love's content o'erflow;
This landscape glitter with the dew
Of blessed hopes and friendships true;
This fountain's living crystal cheer
As fall the springs that once were dear;
This casket with such gems be stored
As shine in lives that love the Lord.

She makes her lover, Tom Manley, a naval officer, overstay his leave, and when she learns the seriousness of the offense, breaks all speed laws and gets him to his port before his ship sails. But she is arrested for speeding and sent to jail. D'Arcy, another suitor, tries to win Betty by planting one of his own dastardly affairs with a girl at Manley's door. Betty believes Tom has been false and agrees to marry D'Arcy. Betty's press agent arranges for a jail wedding, but the girl in the case reveals D'Arcy's real character before it is too late. Tom comes back from ship maneuvers as Betty is released from jail. On the way home the Speed Girl stalls her car, kissing Tom.

SENATOR PENROSE DIED LAST NIGHT

thrusts won for him the fame of humorist of the Upper House, both Democrats and Republicans enjoying his clever sallies.

Resourceful Fighter
The Senator's long feud with the Vane political faction in Philadelphia was one of the outstanding features of his career. It showed him as a most resourceful fighter. As Pennsylvania's National committeeman he was a "power behind the throne" in all Republican conventions, Senate and national councils.

Born in Philadelphia on Nov. 2 was educated by private tutors and at the Episcopal Academy in his home city. At 16 he entered Harvard from which he was graduated in 1881. He studied law with Wayne MacVeagh and George T. Bosham and was admitted to the bar in 1883. Entering immediately into politics, a year later he was elected to the State legislature. In 1885 he helped to secure the passage of a reform charter for Philadelphia, known as the Bullitt Bill, and the next year was chosen a State senator from one of the most aristocratic districts in Pennsylvania. In 1890 he was made president pro tempore of the State Senate and participated in the bitter partisan politics in the years which followed. Meanwhile, at the request of Johns Hopkins University, Penrose had written in collaboration with Edward P. Allison, his law partner, for use as a textbook, a "History of the City Government of Philadelphia." He was regarded as an authority at that time on municipal subjects.

BRIEFS HARVEY HAS FIRST CONVERSATION WITH BRITISH PREMIER

Says Talk With the Minister Was of General Nature

(By The Associated Press)
CANNES, France, Dec. 31.—George Harvey, American ambassador to Great Britain, this afternoon had his first conversation with Prime Minister Lloyd George since their arrival here for next week's meeting of the allied supreme council.

Ambassador Harvey told the correspondent that his talk with the British prime minister was of a general nature and did not include discussion of the submarine or any other question in which the United States was vitally interested.

Mr. Harvey let it be known that the United States would make no move for a more active part in the approaching council meeting, and said America's position would be the same as at the council's last meeting in Paris. Should the allies desire that the United States participate fully in concessions for an economic conference or in discussions of the German reparations question, they must request it. Otherwise the American representative would sit in next week's sessions only as an interested observer.

It was said today that Mr. Harvey might take part in the preliminary conversations between Mr. Lloyd George and Premier Briand if the submarine question should come up. Those who are making arrangements for the council meeting, which is regarded as the most important deliberation since the Paris peace conference, have taken peace and tranquility as their motive.

Hiram Day and his sister, Miss Felicia Day, have gone to Chicago, where they will meet their brother, W. E. Day and then proceed to Gary, Ind., for a visit with their brother, Harry Day and family.

Millard Shelton from Woodson was among the visiting crowd in Jacksonville Saturday.

NEW PLATOON SYSTEM IS NOW IN EFFECT

Yesterday afternoon Chief divided his men at the fire department into platoons and gave them instructions as to the working of the new law.

The local department begins today working under the new system. Under it the members of the department will have some time off for themselves.

Every two weeks the platoons change from day to night work. One advantage about the new system is that the men who are on duty can either sleep at home or at the department, this being a matter of choice.

The platoons are divided as follows: John Taylor, assistant chief, is in charge of the first platoon. The other members are Pearl Iglehart, James Hurst, Jr., Dewey Brockhouse, and William H. Catherwood.

The second platoon is in charge of J. E. Edmonds, who has been given the rank of captain. The other members are: Allyn Simms, Fred O'Daffer, Clyde Sanders and J. C. Wood.

The day platoon will be on duty ten hours and the night platoon fourteen hours.

STANDARD CODE FOR LAW SCHOOLS

FIFTY FIVE INQUESTS HELD BY CORONER ROSE

This Is the Record for the Past Year—Expenses Are Very Few—Paid from County Treasury

Of unusual interest are the records of the office of Coroner Charles A. Rose. During the past year Coroner Rose has held 55 inquests, classified as follows: sudden deaths, 21; accidental deaths, 24; suicides, 7; and murder, 3. One of the murder inquests was the result of a shooting in Cass county, the injured men subsequently dying at a hospital here.

Of the inquests conducted, 21 were over the remains of residents of other counties and the expenses therefore were paid by counties other than Morgan. The costs in 20 other cases were chargeable to estates, so that the expense of but 14 inquests was paid from the Morgan county treasury.

Ogar Cigar Co. wishes its patrons a happy and prosperous New Year.

NIGHT OWLS WILL HAVE TO WATCH THEIR STEP

All persons on the streets at night who cannot give a satisfactory account of themselves to the police will be "run in" and get a night's rest in the lock-up instead of in a "bum camp," or on the streets. Chief of Police Frank Kiloran has issued this order and believes that the probability of night crimes will be reduced if all suspicious characters are rounded up.

Police department records show that since Dec. 1st, 358 men have been given shelter at the city hall.

FIRE ALARM AT 523 SOUTH WEST STREET

The fire department was called to the residence of Mildred Bates, 523 South West street at 9:20 o'clock Saturday night. Fire had started in the roof by sparks from a chimney. The property loss was small. The house is owned by R. T. Cassell.

MARRIAGES FOR YEAR INCREASED IN NUMBER

TOTAL FOR 1921 IS FORTY MORE THAN PREVIOUS YEAR

December Is Record Month In Issuances of Licenses—Rev. M. L. Pontius Leads in Number of Ceremonies Performed

Notwithstanding the talk about high living costs and depression of business, the marriage license record as shown by the books of County Clerk G. L. Riggs indicates an increase of forty in the number of marriages during the year. The total number of licenses issued in 1921 was 329 by comparison with 289 in 1920.

December itself came near being a record month, for forty-four licenses were issued during that time.

The record of performing the largest number of marriage ceremonies in the county, belongs to Rev. M. L. Pontius. The figures below show the number of marriages performed by different ministers and magistrates in the county. It is likely that final records will revise these figures somewhat, as the returns have not been made in the county clerk's office on a number of the licenses issued.

The figures below show the number of licenses issued during the various months of the year just closed:

IN THE RECORDER'S OFFICE
During the year just closed, the number of documents filed in the office of F. E. Wanamaker as county recorder, has been 3,024. The number in the year previous, which was the busiest in the history of the office, was 3,187. These figures show the number of instruments in the past year were 163 less than in 1920, but the figures are not particularly significant as the fees received for recording were considerably in excess of the previous year.

WHAT THE NEW YEAR BRINGS

An old man sat in a large arm chair
Smoking his pipe and dreaming day dreams,
Watching the curls of smoke
ascend.
Then vanish away to nowhere it seemed;
"Ah! It seems but yesterday he sighed
That my life was filled with joy,
When old age was only a joke,
And I, a robust rollicking boy.

Another round up the ladder, a young man I became
And found myself a mate,
A nest we built with love and care
I think folks call it fate;
'Ere long God sent the little ones
To bless our home and fill anew
With happiness and lonely hearts
As nothing else can do.

But the tiny buds soon blossomed unto flower,
The house seemed cold and drear
Save for the little grand-tots
That shout "Grandpa" and gather near.
Climbing with glee upon my knee
A story I must tell
About the many pranks I played
'Round town and school as well.

Those days my dear ones, were happy ones,
But 'tis wrong to wish them back 'tis said
For there's generations growing up
To take my place instead;
So Time's march moves slowly on,
The young learn to travel the route
Candles burn in the windows every New Year
While the old are ushered out!

FRANK D. KILORAN MAKES HIS REPORT

Police Department Has Had an Active Year—This Because of the Fact That the Collection of Wheel Tax and Oil Inspection Has Been Added.

Frank D. Kiloran has prepared his annual report for presentation to the city council at the next regular meeting. While there have not been many arrests during the year, the department has been active.

This is brought about by the addition of the inspection of oil and the collection of vehicle tax which has been turned over to the department.

Mr. Kiloran's report shows a total of fines and costs collected during the year of $1,632.20. The largest amount in any one month was in November which shows a total of $227. The smallest amount in the month of January, the total being $47.

The vehicle license during the year shows that it is becoming an important part of the city's revenue. It is used exclusively for repair of the city streets and much good was accomplished with the funds during the year just closing.

The report shows that license was collected on 1075 motor vehicles with a total revenue of $4,663.50. Horse drawn vehicles number 131 and the total collected was $448.50, making a total of $5,112.00.

The department inspected a total of 147 cars of gasoline and other oil during the year. The total amount collected for inspection is $882.

Total receipts from all sources collected thru the department are $7,835.70.

TRIMS ATHENS

Win Rough Game on Opponents
Floor by Score of 23 to 21—
Locals Outplayed Athens.
In a game marked by many personal fouls, Jacksonville high took the Athens high school five into camp at Athens Saturday night by a score of 23 to 21.
The Athens boys played a hard rough game but they found the locals their match at any kind of game they wanted to start. Seventeen personal fouls and one technical foul was called on the locals. Eight personal fouls were called on Athens.
Had it not been for the personal fouls Jacksonville would have walked away with an easy victory. The locals scored nine field baskets and four free throws. Athens only got four field baskets for a total of eight points. The other points were made from free throws, thirteen being successful.
Coach Mitchell's men again showed the old fight that has brought them victory so far in every game they have played. Then men never quit fighting and after Putnam had gone out on personal fouls it necessitated rearrangement of the team. However, the new combination fought just as hard and seemed to be just as successful.
Every man on the squad played a hard fighting game. The men again displayed excellent team work and it was this team work that finally brought victory. Putnam and Hunter led the Jacksonville attack in the first half while in the second half Goebel who was inserted into the fray and Hunter did the scoring. Putnam scored one basket before he went out in the second half. Hunt, Arter and Hackett played an excellent game at guard positions and made lots of trouble for the Athens forwards.
Goebel especially played a sterling game after he started. He scored five field baskets and one free throw and this spelled defeat for Athens and victory for his team. The score:

CALIFORNIA HAS VARIED ATTACK

Western Team Is Powerful Aggregation—Meets Washington and Jefferson New Year's Day
BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 31.—Powerful off-tackle bucks, forward passes and punting probably will be used by the University of California eleven in offensive play against Washington and Jefferson at Pasadena, Cal. in the annual New Year's day east vs. west football game.
California's team, probably the strongest ever developed in the west, using mainly tackle bucks and an aerial attack, went thru a hard schedule this year without being defeated and exerted its full strength. Generally California punts a great deal, waiting for the "break" and when the "break" comes, then starts its strong advance.
No defeats have been suffered by the Bears since 1919. Last year the eleven, dubbed the "wonder team" went thru the season undefeated, piled up high scores, won the Pacific Coast conference championship and defeated Ohio university, Big Ten champions, New Year's day. This year the scores have not been so high but the conference title was won for a second time without a defeat.
California has no out-standing stars, unless it be "Brick" Muller, end, who has a habit of throwing forward passes fifty and sixty yards like he would throw a baseball. A fractured bone in his knee kept Muller out of most of this year's games. Archie Nisbet, who probably will start at full back, does most of the kicking and in every game this year his boots of from forty to sixty yards have gained ground in every exchange of punts. "Duke" Morrison, California's other first-string full-back, is a powerful line charger. Toomey and Nichols, the half-backs, are powerful. Dan McMillan, a tackle has been mentioned for all-American honors; Quarterback Charley Erb is an excellent field general and Berkeley and Stephens, two other ends, are particularly fast in getting down the field under punts.
The record of California's 1921 team follows:
California, 21; St. Mary's college, 0.
California, 14; Olympic club of San Francisco, 0.
California, 51; University of Nevada, 6.
California, 21; Pacific fleet, 10.
California, 39; University of Oregon, 0.
California, 14; Washington state, 0.
California, 39; University of Southern California, 7.
California, 72; University of Washington, 3.
California, 42; Stanford university, 7.

MAY ADOPT NEW SCORING SYSTEM

Will Be Recommended at Meeting of Grand Circuit Stewards at January Meeting—Will Compel Drivers to Start Mounts Together.
CLEVELAND, O.—By The Associated Press.—An innovation in scoring which will force harness race drivers to start their mounts together, will be recommended to the Grand Circuit stewards when they convene here January 9 and 10. The system will be inaugurated at North Randall at the initial Grand Circuit meeting this summer, regardless of the action taken by the stewards, according to Win Kinnaman, secretary of the Forest City Live Stock and Fair Co.
It is planned to have the horses in each race go to a tape placed at a point eighty yards below the judges' stand where a man will be stationed in the center of the track. At the tape horses will fall in single file, half following the inside rail and the remainder parading on the other side of the track.
The horses will be compelled to turn around this man and fall automatically into their rightful places while still on a walk.
While the greatest advantage of the system will be to force all horses to approach the starter abreast and with no animal out of place, it will also aid greatly in reducing the number of breaks and tend to make trotters and pacers come to the wire on their stride.
It is planned to permit no more than three scores, and if a horse offends three times it will be sent to the stables. If, however, the judges think more than three scores are necessary, these can be permitted.
The plan also is expected to be broached at meetings of the Union, National and American Trotting Associations.

WOULD ABOLISH
PARI-MUTUELS BETTING

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 31.—An active organization of the opponents of pari-mutuels betting at race tracks has been maintained in this state for months and their endeavor to do away with this form of wagering will reach a climax during the coming session of the Kentucky legislature which convenes on Jan. 2.
Backers of racetracks in the state claim that to abolish betting would kill racing in Kentucky and a hard fight is expected on the measure. One legislator has already announced that he will introduce a bill early in the session to repeal the law that legalizes pari-mutuels betting.
Mr. and Mrs. MaFaus Mullen and Edward Mullen of Chicago are spending New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hirsch, 1010 South East street.

NORTHWESTERN
WINS FROM YALE

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—Northwestern university basketball team put Yale on the defensive during a hard-fought game at Patten gymnasium, Evanston, tonight and won, 23 to 14.
This is the sixth defeat for the Yale team on its holiday western trip.
McKenzie carried the brunt of the burden for the Purple, scoring five baskets and seven free throws—a total of seventeen points. Yale missed ten free throws and scored six gratis points. Haas was the only Yale man to finish without a foul. The Yale team is scheduled to start for home tonight having won no victories on the trip.

W. AND J. READY FOR CALIFORNIA

Eastern Squad Takes Twenty-Six Men to Coast—Many of Them Are Giants—Team Has Envyable Record.
(By The Associated Press)
BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 31.—Hardened and cheered by a vigorous and victorious football season, and kept in the pink of condition by frequent drilling on a snow covered gridiron since its close, the Washington & Jefferson College squad today was ready for its battle against the University of California at Pasadena, January 2.
Twenty-six seasoned athletes, one of them with four years experience on the varsity team, and four with three years behind each of them, made up the list from which Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale selected the party for the western trip.
Prominent among the leaders was Captain Russell Stein who, as tackle, led the squad. He was a consistent star and to his general ship the Red and Black traced some of its most important victories.
Erickson and Brankherst half-backs, and Konvolinka and Alken, ends, were the other men with long football training.
Kopf, another end, has always been looked upon as a notable player, and in the last season saved the day for W. & J. from the University of Pittsburgh by a leap in the air, receiving a forward pass and dashing across the line for a touchdown, the only score of the game.
The team was strong in offense and powerful in defense, and showed its mastery of the game by lightning changes from massed formation to open play.
Washington and Jefferson did not lose a game during the past season. It won first from Bethany College of West Virginia by a score of 14 to 0, and followed this victory by taking a game from BBucknell, 26 to 0. West Virginia Wesleyan next went down before it, 54 to 0, and Carnegie Tech of Pittsburgh went down to defeat, 14 to 0. Lehigh was defeated at Bethlehem, 14 to 0, and University of Syracuse, at Syracuse 17 to 10. Westminster College, of Pennsylvania, went down, 49 to 14, the last game before Washington and Jefferson met its ancient rival, the University of Pittsburgh Panthers. This was one of the most notable games of the season, and was played on a field ankle deep in mud. Washington and Jefferson won its victory in the last few minutes of play, 7 to 0. University of West Virginia, on Thanksgiving Day, was the last game on the playing schedule, and this Washington and Jefferson won, 18 to 0.
In its regular playing season, Washington and Jefferson scored

TRY TO BLOW UP
STAR FOOTBALL MAN

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—John W. Thomas, star full-back of the University of Chicago football team, was slightly burned when a bomb exploded outside his door in the Sigma Chi fraternity house.
The bomb is believed to have been placed by a practical joker who obtained it from the laboratory of the school of military science.
Milton Romney and Robert Halliday, members of the university basketball team, in the adjoining room, escaped injury.
Thomas' door, which was slightly open, was shattered and flames entered, burning the full-back's arm. A hole was torn in the floor at the doorway.

FRAZEE REPLIES TO BAN JOHNSON

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Harry H. Frazee, president of the Boston Americans, today replied to a slam attributed to Ban Johnson, president of the American league, characterizing Frazee as the "champion wrecker of the baseball age."
Mr. Frazee said he was surprised at the baseball magnate's words, because Johnson was one of the first signers of an agreement, pledging the baseball leaders to abstain from criticism of one another during the life of the agreement with Judge K. M. Landis as baseball commissioner. He added that if he found Mr. Johnson had made the statement attributed to him, he would consider this agreement broken.

MISSISSIPPI LOSES
TO CUBA ATHLETIC TEAM

HAVANA, Cuba, Dec. 31.—Heavily outweighed and outgeneralized the football team of Mississippi university went down to defeat here today before the Cuba Athletic club eleven by a score of 13 to 0. Playing old style football without a single attempt at a forward pass, the Cubans scored six points in the first quarter and seven in the last, when Romero, right half-back, ran thirty-five yards and then bucked the line twice for a touchdown.
Mississippi failed miserably in aerial tactics, trying twelve forward passes without success.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

WILL MAKE REPORT ON ROAD CONDITIONS

Good Roads Association Assisted By Automotive Dealers' Association Will Gather Data.

Believing that the public should be informed from time to time as to the condition of the roads leading into Jacksonville for a radius of 20 or more miles, the Morgan County Good Roads Association assisted by the Automotive Dealers' Association and the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce have worked out a plan of publishing at least three times per week in the papers the existing condition of the roads.

The first report follows:
Vandalia Road.
Jacksonville, Franklin and Waverly is in good shape.

Woodson Road.
Jacksonville to Woodson and to end of the oil one mile south, the road is in fair shape, dry in center but muddy on sides. From there thru Midway, Murrayville and to Manchester, road has two wide well beaten ruts that are passable but rather hard to pass other cars.

Manchester, Roadhouse and White Hall.

The New Year's holiday will be observed in Jacksonville on Monday, Jan. 2nd, owing to the fact that the holiday falls on Sunday. Business will be suspended generally, practically all business houses, banks, factories and shops will be closed for the day. The exception to this rule will be the places that are usually open on Sundays.

The closing was brought about thru the efforts of the Trade Extension Committee of the Chamber of Commerce who secured an agreement as to the closing of these stores in observance of Christmas and New Years.

We take this opportunity to express our deep gratitude to friends and customers for their generous patronage during the past year, and sincerely wish them all the happiness, joy and prosperity that the New Year offers.—J. HERMAN.

CROP REVIEW FOR 1921

(By B. W. Snow)
The following is the crop review written by B. W. Snow, of the Bartlett-Frazier company, of Chicago. Mr. Snow is a crop expert of many years' experience and high standing.

"In the history of American agriculture, there has, perhaps, been no year so trying and so unsatisfactory as that just closed. From the standpoint of crop production, when measured in volume secured, it was a fruitful year, but when measured by the exchange value of its products to the producer it stands preeminently as a year of grinding toil and meager return. During the period of rapidly falling prices the farmer was first stunned and then angry and resentful at the apparent singling out of agriculture as a solitary sacrifice. As the year progressed, however, and it became clearly apparent that the law of economic readjustment was playing no favorites, the country attitude underwent an appreciable change.

"The year closes with a decidedly better country feeling, a realization that economic law works the same in industrial as in agricultural affairs, and a new determination to seek once again farm wealth thru the medium of individual labor combined with intelligent application of improved methods of husbandry, leading to profit thru a reduction of production costs. The last government report of the year, with its showing of a new wheat and rye acreage decidedly larger than that harvested this season, furnishes evidence of rural appreciation of the approach once again of a normal exchange value between farm and industrial products. The American farmer ponders deeply and in the end he thinks his problems out, and his present attitude toward a well balanced but full agricultural production is one of the most hopeful signs of the day.

The final estimate of the wheat crop, heavily increased long after harvest, makes a production sufficient for all domestic needs and with a surplus for exports of apparently close to 240 million bushels. The striking, and from the producers' standpoint, satisfactory feature of the situation is that the great bulk of the crop left first hands more promptly than usual and at the highest prices of the year. The "inventory shrinkage" in wheat this year has fallen upon the distributor, the much abused middle-

The corn crop is of moderate proportion, certainly not excessive when allowance is made for the large percentage of damaged grain. The short grain crop is oats, with a volume materially below the usual standard of consumption.

The year closes with every indication of price readjustments that will narrow the gap between industrial and farm products to the mutual benefit of every American interest.

This store will be closed all day Monday, Jan. 2nd.

SWIFT AND COMPANY PRODUCE MARKET REVIEW

Large supplies of poultry were carried over the holidays, and while the movement from the farms has been lighter, there has been an ample supply for current requirements.

Receipts of fresh eggs are increasing in practically all sections, due to the mild open winter, and possibly some fowl will be held back on this account. Prices have declined rapidly, due to the large supply.

The American Association of Creamery Butter Manufacturers reported an increase of over 50 per cent in the make of butter for week ending December 24.

In addition to this increase in the domestic production, some large shipments of butter have been received, or enroute from Australia to New York; in fact, 10,000 packages of 56 pounds each, or 2,240,000 pounds are reported available this week and next. In addition, there are moderate shipments arriving from Denmark. These conditions point to a full supply of butter and moderate prices.

We wish to thank our many patrons for their liberal response during our Pre-Inventary Sale and as our stock in every department is yet very choice and large some excellent values are to be had.

DRAWING FOR FORD CAR AT HUDGINS'

The number winning the Ford touring car in the Hudgins furniture store drawing, was 14626. The person holding this number was not present in the large crowd gathered for the drawing at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. If no one claims the Ford within seven days, the next number is good, for fifteen tickets were drawn, and the fifteenth was the lucky one.

A 1922 Ford touring car was offered by C. E. Hudgin to the holder of the winning ticket. The tickets have been given out, one for each $1.00 worth of merchandise bought in the last five months. Much interest has been shown in the stunt since such a big prize was offered.

Happy New Year-Good Luck

And GOOD HEALTH

Permit us to extend to each and every one of you our most heartfelt thanks for the blessings of 1921—for the good will and confidence you have bestowed upon us.

At all times we shall endeavor to retain that faith you have placed in us by maintaining the high standards of service to the utmost degree.

And may the year 1922 be the most prosperous and happiest in your history—for your contentment means our contentment.

You Are Cordially Invited to Attend the Grand Opening of New Annex to The New Home Sanitarium, Inc.

January 2, From 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Special Program, 7:30 to 9 P. M., in Large, Beautiful Dining Room

Permit us to extend to all who have given us the opportunity to prove that "RESULTS beat ALL ARGUMENTS" during the past year, our heartfelt thanks; and to express the wish for you that the blessings of 1922 be even greater than in the past.

May your Health be unimpaired. But should the misfortunes of sickness overtake you, and wisdom convinces you that they should be CUT OUT, remember, "Safety First" always; and if our past record of 3,193 cases with that remarkably low death rate does not win for us your most serious consideration, we too, will encourage you to look for that place where you can get the best results only. You are entitled to the best.

Life is sweet when we have only one claim to it; loose it and you cannot regain it. So everyone should think of nothing but how to save it when it is threatened.

Efficiency and SKILL, the two most powerful elements of SUCCESS, neutral in their distribution in that they know no Nation, Race or Individual, but may be possessed by any one willing to pay the price, are the determining factors for any thoughtful person to consider before placing his life in a physician's care.

Results of your labors tell the people more about you than your "SHEEP-SKIN" or SOCIAL STANDING.

As a writer beautifully says, "Had I the height to reach the poles or to grasp the oceans in my span, I'd still be measured by my soul, for the MIND is the Standard of the Man."

We extend to one and all a most cordial INVITATION to INSPECT THE NEW ANNEX, and the entire building, JANUARY 2nd, 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m., AND to listen to the Special Program from 7:30 p. m. to 9:00 p. m.

During the evening Mrs. Pearl Moore's Orchestra will furnish music in dining-room.

Condensed History

In April 1909, this Institution was founded as a result of those conditions limiting the opportunities of a Race Surgeon. We were imbued with the fact that "you can no more keep a GOOD MAN down than you can hold an incompetent one up". So, a six-room cottage, three beds and one nurse, an unlimited ambition and the vision of GREAT FUTURE, marked the beginning. Today, a modern structure of sixty-seven rooms, TEN NURSES, two surgeons and ten associate physicians, with a record of which we are not ashamed, characterizes the work of twelve years—a plant valued at $64,000.

It is the only Institution of its kind in the world devoted to Surgery, owned and controlled by a Race Surgeon.

The Patients' Register shows that patients have come from twenty-two States, and from Canada. During the WORLD WAR we had the pleasure of training several young physicians who played conspicuous parts in the service.

PRE-WAR PRICES

Our now ample room, with plenty of help, enables us to again adopt our pre-war prices, which puts the SERVICE of this Institution within the reach of ALL.

Rooms from $12.00 to $50.00 per week.

TAX RATE REDUCED FOR JACKSONVILLE

City Council Cancels Oil Tax and Makes Cut in Garbage Rate—County Clerk Riggs Urged Action to Help Make City Tax Total Lower—Figures Considerably Less Than Original Estimate.

The city council at an informal conference held at the city hall last night, took action to help reduce the tax rate in Jacksonville. The tax of 20 cents per $100 of valuation for street oiling was abandoned and the 13 cents originally asked for the garbage reduction was reduced to 10 cents. This made a net reduction of 23 cents. The saving to the people in taxes will be between $13,000 and $14,000.

Earlier in the day County Clerk George L. Riggs announced that the registered bond tax would be 7 instead of 9 cents and the county bond 2 cents instead of 3 cents as originally figured. Some other reductions have been made, reducing the tax total to $6.96 instead of $7.05 as previously announced. The change authorized by the council makes a further reduction of 23 cents and fixes the rate at $6.73. Last year the rate was $6.40, so that the increase this year will be 33 cents on the $100 of valuation instead of 65 cents as originally estimated.

Mr. Riggs last year was able to reduce the rate by the scaling down process but did not have that authority under the law this year. However, he was very anxious to assist in reducing the rate and asked the city council to take any action possible along this line at once. Mr. Riggs wished to get the facts about any changes in prospect before any further work of tax extension is done. He and his assistants will work all thru Monday, altho it is a legal holiday, in order to make up some of the past delay.

At the council session last night Mayor Crabtree presided and stated that if anything could be done to help reduce the tax rate without at the same time crippling service that it should be done. The roll call by City Clerk Scott showed present Aldermen McGinnis, Flynn, Loneragan, Ehnie, Chapin and Cain. A speedy agreement was reached on the question of cancelling the oil tax, since a supreme court finding has declared the tax invalid. It is interesting to note in this connection that railroads entering Jacksonville last year at first declined to pay the amounts taxed against their properties for oiling, in view of the court finding. However, afterward Mayor Crabtree wrote to officials of the Burlington, C. & A. and Wabash and acquainted them with all the facts, with the result that the oil tax was paid voluntarily.

The council discussed at some length the question of abolishing the garbage department or reducing the tax. It was finally decided to reduce the tax from 13 to 10 cents and at the same time an understanding was reached that there will be some revision of the plan of operation of the department with the endeavor to give increasingly efficient service.

FEDERAL TAX LAWS EFFECTIVE TODAY HAVE MANY CHANGES

Many Will Help the Man Who Pays the Bills
—No More Tax on Railroad Tickets and Sleeping Car Berths—Tooth Paste is Also Exempt—Smokers Must Still Pay Tax

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Changes in federal taxes voted by congress last month will come into full force tomorrow. Here's how they will affect you:

When you ride on a railroad train or an inland or coast-wise steamer you no longer will have to pay the government eight per cent of the amount of your fare and eight per cent of the cost of your seat, berth or stateroom.

When you ship freight you will not be assessed an extra three per cent and the cost. Likewise you can send packages by express or parcels post without having to give up a "war tax."

When you visit the corner drug store for a bottle of proprietary medicine, a tube of tooth paste, a toilet preparation or the like you will escape the vexatious stamp taxes.

When you go to a soda fountain you no longer will find Uncle Sam holding out his hand for a penny on each ten cents or a fraction that you pay the clerk for a drink or a plate of ice cream.

If you want to sport a pair of shoes costing more than $10 or a shirt costing more than $3 you will not have to lay out a tax. These and all of the other so-called luxury taxes on clothing, as well as those on umbrellas, parasols, sun shades, picture frames, trunks, valises, pocketbooks, etc., go into the discard tomorrow.

Ten Cent Movies Escape
If you live in a place that still can boast of a ten-cent movie show or other place of amusement, you will not be assessed a "war tax." If the charge exceeds ten cents, however, you will continue to pay a war levy at the present rates of a cent for each ten cents or fraction. All heads of families with dependents will get a slight reduction on their income tax during the new year, the extent being $3 for each dependent as a result of the increase from $200 to $400 in the exemption on account of dependents.

If you are married and your net income in 1921 was $5,000 or less, however, you will get a still further reduction in taxes as the normal exemption for married men in this class has been increased from $2,000 to $2,500. Single men are given no additional exemption and can deduct only $1,000 from their net income.

Whether you are single or married, if you made a gain from the sale of capital assets, such as a building or stocks or bonds, you can pay the tax on this gain at the corporation income rate of 12 1/2 per cent, instead of at the surtax rate if you so elect. If your income is such as to put you in the surtax paying class you will pay in 1922 at the old war rates, but in 1923 you will pay at the new rates, which become effective tomorrow, and which provide for some reduction all along the line with the maximum at fifty per cent on $200,000 instead of sixty-five per cent of $1,000,000 or more.

Some classes of business, big and little, get some relief under the new tax bill, but other classes will have their taxes increased. Corporations which did not fall within the excess profiting making class during the war will have their taxes advanced thru the increase of two and one-half per cent, in the corporation income tax. Corporations failing within this class include the railroads and public utilities, the income of which are regulated by federal or state commissions thru the control over rates.

Excess Profits Tax Goes
The excess profits tax is repealed, effective tomorrow, but the result will not be reflected in federal revenues until the calendar year 1923 as next year this tax will be paid on the basis of the profits made in 1921. Likewise corporations will not begin paying at the increased normal income tax rate until 1923.

Many of the special or excise taxes imposed upon manufacturers in many lines of business also go by the boards tomorrow. The framers of the new tax law believe this will lighten the burden of the public generally as they hold that these taxes, with but few exceptions, have been passed on. Manufacturers who have their taxes repealed are those turning out chewing gum, articles made of fur, musical instruments, sporting goods, including billiard and pool tables and ball, pleasure boats and canoes costing less than $100 each; electric fans and thermos bottles and jugs.

Other taxes which come off include those on insurance premiums and on bonds of indemnity and surety, while sharp reductions are made in the taxes of cereal and carbonated beverages sold in closed containers; on all candy and works of art.

Some new taxes are put on manufacturers, the rate being five per cent of the amount by which the sale price exceeds given sums in the cases of carpets and rugs, trunks, valises, fitted toilet cases, pocketbooks, portable lamps and

NEW YEAR

The dull sky floats far away;
But the moon lights atop yon tree
Like a dream too real to believe,
Or love too near to last.

The half of night is past;
The old year is past retrieve—
But blind to dark destiny,
My love, like the moon, doth stay.

And tho time leaves of vows scarce a tear,
I send up my vows to the year.

—ROBERT V. SHOEMAKER.

LIGHT ON THE CLOUDS

There is never an always cloudless sky,
There's never a vale so fair,
But over it sometimes shadows lie
In a chill and songless air.

But never a cloud o'erhung the day,
And flung its shadows down,
But on its heaven side gleamed some ray,
Forming a sunshine crown.

It is dark on only the downward side;
Though rage the tempest loud,
And scatter its terrors far and wide,
There's light upon the cloud.

And often when it traileth low,
Shutting the landscape out,
And only the chilly east winds blow
From the foggy seas of doubt—

There'll come a time, near the setting sun,
When the joys of life seem few,
A rift will come in the evening dun
And the golden light stream through.

And the Soul a glorious bridge will make
Out of the golden bars,
And all its priceless treasures take
Where shine the eternal stars.

NEWSPAPER MAN MUST FEEL CALL

Chicago City Editor Likens Him
To an Evangelist—Must Love Work to Succeed.

MADISON, Wis.—(By A. P.)—Students who do not feel a "call" like that of the old-fashioned evangelist should get out of schools of journalism into something else, for failure is ahead of them, Walter A. Washburne, city editor of the Chicago Evening Post and professor of reporting at the Joseph Medill School of Journalism, said here recently at the convention of the American association of Teachers of Journalism.

"As the number of trained newspaper workers is increased by schools of journalism, the mediocre man's opportunity diminishes," Mr. Washburne said.

"Nowadays there is little room for second-rate material in the newspaper game. Second raters will do better in other fields, where blunders can be buried or appealed to the Supreme Court."

To succeed in modern journalism, Mr. Washburne said, the reporter must be able to judge news values at a glance, must be free from squeamishness and prejudice, must be able to think, act and write quickly and must be passionately in love with his work.

"To qualify, the students should practice constantly," he said. "Knowledge of theory is valuable, but the reporter has to make theory effective on short order, and nothing but unremitting practice in gathering and writing news will develop the necessary facility."

WOULD FORM FUND OF SEVERAL MILLIONS TO ASSIST EX-SERVICE MEN

Commander MacNider Would Raise Fund
With Compensations of Men Who Feel
They Can Spare Use of Money—Good Standing in Organization Qualification

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 31.—A fund of several million dollars to be loaned without interest and with only a man's good standing in the American Legion as security, to World War veterans who may be in temporary need because of disability, illness and attendant unemployment or other causes, is planned by National Commander Harford MacNider, who announced the Legion's service program for the coming year.

Mr. MacNider would create this fund by a pool of adjusted compensation allotments of veterans who feel they can spare the use of the money which would come to them under the terms of the federal adjusted compensation bill, which the Legion leader asserts is certain of passage by the present congress.

Mr. MacNider said announcement of this revolving fund plan would remove "practically the last vestige of opposition to the compensation measure by providing a way by which every dollar paid out by the government under this act can be used to strengthen the economic fabric of the country by the rehabilitation of needy individuals who are not compensable under existing laws or who, owing to administrative delays, have not received the benefits to which they are entitled."

"While perhaps not more than two or three per cent of the men who served in the last war will not be able to use in manners which will be of lasting benefits to themselves, their families and their communities the benefits which accrue to them under the broad and diverse terms of the adjusted compensation bill," continued Mr. MacNider, "from this group we mean to obtain a fund of several million dollars to be used for the perpetual benefit of our less fortunate comrades."

"In every community we have veterans who are without employment. The ex-soldier and ex-sailor has suffered more than any other class from the present industrial depression. The Legion is doing all within its power to help them, but our means are limited. The fund we mean to create by donations of adjusted compensation allotments by men and women who can spare it will solve the problem of the needy veteran who wants to work but can find no work to do."

"Another class is the sick and disabled. There are 30,000 men in hospitals now under government care for infirmities caused by military or naval service. Not more than two thirds of these men are drawing the disability compensation to which they are entitled. Hundreds have been obliged to leave the hospitals and in their enfeebled conditions try to work to support their families for whom the government has totally neglected to provide. There is another and larger class suffering from afflictions traceable to service who are receiving not even hospital care."

"There will shortly be launched by the Legion organization a campaign to bring to the attention of the Bureau the case of every man who is not receiving the benefits to which he is entitled under the laws of the Bureau is supposed to carry out. It will be found that an astounding number of men will fall in this class. Thousands are in actual service who are expected the Bureau to adjudicate each case fairly and promptly. If not, the time will be at hand for a public examination of the Bureau's affairs."

"The Legion can build this fund into the greatest single asset for service to the veteran that can be devised. It will assure a nearly humanly possible that every dollar paid out under the adjusted compensation act will be of real and lasting benefit to the country by benefiting those who served their country at the expense of health and fortune."

What's Coming In 1922

Roger Babson, Famous Statistician forecasts business conditions for the new year.

In discussing the general business outlook Roger W. Babson, prominent business authority outlines coming conditions, as follows:

"Things look better than a year ago. At this time last year we were deflating at the most rapid rate the country has ever known. Everything was on the toboggan. Since then the Babson Commodity Index has dropped from $3.71 in June, 1920, to $1.71 in August, 1921, (a drop of 54 per cent) and now stands at $1.82. Commercial paper rates have dropped from 8 per cent to 5 1/2 per cent. Business early in the summer touched the lowest point since 1915. For the last few months there has been a slight recovery. This means that the 'wringing out' process has developed in a substantial way. 1921 failures have totaled nearly $700,000,000—more than twice as much as any previous year in the history of the United States. Moreover, they are continuing at a very high rate. Inventories have been drastically cut. Factories are closed or running only half time.

"After the business debacle we had from 1916 to 1920, the best thing that could happen was just such a drastic deflation as we are experiencing. The sooner a solid foundation is established the better off business will be. Do not misunderstand this, however. Superficial students are saying that we shall immediately vault into an era of good business again, but statistics do not corroborate this view. After the orgy of inflation above referred to, it takes time to correct the situation. Thus far we have swung about half way around the inevitable cycle of events.

"We have passed thru periods of declining stock prices and commodity prices, and to some extent declining real estate prices. We are already getting the first taste of low money rates. Considering all things, we may be said to stand approximately as noted by the arrow in the diagram above.

"The Babson chart has recovered from a low of 29 per cent below normal to its present position 11 per cent below normal. The recovery has been rapid. It probably will not continue at such a lively rate. After the recent seasonal improvement we shall probably have a reaction, and then another upturn. Of course some lines which have already been severely deflated such as Textiles, Leather Products and Packing will improve, but others including Coal, Steel and Oil will decline. Sales the early months of the year will be lower than 1921 but some improvement should bring next fall up so that the net result will show 1922 to be about the same as 1921. Except we shall be further along toward the brisk business which must eventually return.

"Our hindrances now stand as follows: (1) Conditions in Europe are still chaotic. We are all grateful for the improvement since the Disarmament Conference began, but in ordinary times Europe has taken over half our exports. At present she is more interested in selling to us than buying. (2) Our agricultural areas are having the worst depression in history. Particularly is this true of the corn belt, where crops are worth little or nothing and where the things the farmer buys are still very high. (3) There is still a disheartening lack of balance in other lines, and between wholesale and retail prices, wages and profits. (4) Nearly every industry is suffering from excess capacity developed during the war, and from a burdensome overhead which must be eliminated. It takes time to correct all these unfavorable influences.

"The year 1922 will serve to smooth out many of the difficulties. As to commodities, most agricultural and food products are already at the low point, and are slowly recovering. Others like petroleum products, chemicals and certain building materials, are still too high. Generally speaking, localities and industries have been little hurt and are doing a fair business. This again is a wonderful demonstration of the great law of action and reaction.

"Furthermore, statistics show that the localities which were the first to slump will be the first to offer sales opportunities. During the coming year, the northeastern section of the country will show up more favorably than other territories, and the sales departments that are ready for competition will get the business.

"It is a great satisfaction that the monetary situation is so much better than last year. In spite of its severe criticism, the Federal Reserve Board is entitled to great credit for the way it has handled things. Money will continue to work lower, and this means that bonds will continue their upward trend which I so strongly emphasized a year ago. This is one thing on which we can all be optimistic. If you have not bought your bonds, buy them before they get any higher. I am also feeling better concerning the stock market, although it is still two-sided as far as the various groups are concerned. Regardless of the 1922 record, and temporary recoveries commodity price averages should work slowly back toward pre-war levels.

"Remember, however, the following favorable points for 1922:

"(1) Money is getting cheaper every day.

"(2) The Disarmament Conference and similar factors are making some things look better.

"(3) Taxation tendencies are now in the direction to help business.

"(4) The Congressional elections take place this year.

"(5) In a moral and religious sense, the people are getting nearer to the earth.

"Just a word concerning these last two points. There is no doubt that the administration is going to do everything possible to bolster up things and make everybody happy as the year moves onward.

"Such a process would work a decided stimulant into the situation later in the year—even the year as a whole may not show up any better than 1921. Again, the awful wave of spending, high living, crime and irreligion incident to 1919 and 1920 is passing away. This is fundamental to the whole business fabric. When we get back to the old fashioned virtues—thrift, honesty and true religion—we can look for good business.

"The successful concerns of 1922 will—

"(a) Get their prices as near to 1915 as possible; may not show up any better than 1921.

"(b) Be ready for severe competition.

"(c) Cut down overhead.

"(d) Increase turnover.

"(e) Exercise real salesmanship.

"There will be business done in 1922, but don't forget the old saying: 'He that seeketh, findeth.' There will be business and the man who goes after it aggressively will get it."

Policy Meets Approval

At the very beginning our policy was to render a perfect service at the lowest possible cost.

After one year of my business career, I found the public had faith in my statements.

I have not entered the undertaking profession to see how quick I can become rich from your misfortunes, and with this purpose ever in mind I shall maintain the right prices regardless of others.

Judging from the position I have gained after one year, my policy of conducting my business meets with your approval. Without it I could not have met with success. I shall continue to protect my clients at all times from unjust charges.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

President Rammelkamp received two very welcome new year's gifts on Saturday—one was a subscription of $1,000 for the New Endowment fund from a Quincy alumnus, and the others a cash subscription of $1,000 from a Chicago friend. This is the fourth time the Chicago friend has subscribed a thousand dollars in the present endowment tion is also in addition to one previously made.

President Rammelkamp, Professor Poage, of the history department and Prof. C. E. Carter, '05, formerly of the faculty of Illinois college and now on the faculty of Miami university, Ohio, attended the meetings of the American Historical association in St. Louis during the past week. One of the most important features of the meeting was a complimentary dinner given by the trustees of the Missouri botanical garden to the members of the association at the Jefferson hotel. Over 400 persons attended the banquet and the chief speaker of the occasion was the French ambassador, Jean Jules Jusserand. The Mississippi Valley Historical association held its meeting in conjunction with the other association.

Professor Carter is one of the editors of the Mississippi Valley Historical Review, an important historical magazine published by the Mississippi Valley association. Professor Carter is now visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Carter, of this city for a few days.

Irvin B. Potter, '11, superintendent of schools at Dixon, Ill., was a visitor on the campus Saturday afternoon. Mr. Potter has met with great success in his school work at Dixon. He was in attendance during the past week at the meetings of the State Teachers' association at Springfield.

Dean Scott represented Illinois college at the meetings of the State Teachers' association in Springfield.

Mrs. T. L. Morris, whose recent death at Quincy, Ill., has been noted in the local press, was an alumna of the Jacksonville Female college of the class of '79. Among the other members of the class were Mrs. Joseph Yingling, Mrs. F. R. Ewing, and Mrs. W. P. Rice.

The chemistry laboratories in Sturtevant hall have been given a very thorough cleaning during the holidays, the floors oiled and some of the wood work repainted. Among those who are visiting

WHY YOU NEED IRON—

To make you strong and
"brainy" and put the power into your blood to overcome disease
germs

The food you eat contains carbon. When your food is digested it is absorbed from the intestines into the blood. When the carbon in your food comes in contact with the oxygen carried by the iron in your blood, the carbon and oxygen unite and by so doing they give off tremendous energy, thereby giving you great force, strength and endurance. Without iron your blood carries no oxygen and without oxygen there is nothing to unite with the carbon in your food, so that what you eat does you no good—you do not get any strength from it—it is like putting coal into a stove without a fire. You cannot get any heat unless the coal unites with the fire.

The strongest weapon with which to prevent and overcome colds, pneumonia, kidney trouble, rheumatism, nervous prostration,
in fact almost any disease or disease germs is plenty of good rich, pure blood, strength energy and endurance and the greater energy carrier in the body is organic iron not metallic iron which people usually take, but organic iron like the iron in spinach, lentils, and apples, and like the iron contained in what is known as organic Nuxated Iron, which may be had from almost any druggist. Nuxated Iron often increases the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous, rundown folks in two weeks' time.

It has been used and highly recommended by former United States Senators, Members of Congress, Judges of U. S. Courts, many physicians and prominent men.
Over 4,000,000 people are now using it annually. Satisfactory results are guaranteed or the manufacturers will refund your money.

was eighty-seven years old.
"Mr. Beall was recognized as one of the real builders of the west, and as one whom few were better conversant with its history. In many of the events that form the chief items of that history he was a leading actor himself. He was a man of splendid education and fine intellectual powers and thru his wide interest in all affairs of the day, his inherent capacity for leadership and his consistent cleaving to the principles of integrity and uprightness came to be known as one of the real leaders in the development of the northwest.

Mr. Beall was born in Washington, D. C., in 1835, his father being a commander in the United States army and his mother a daughter of a prominent merchant of the south. He attended the University of Missouri and Illinois college, his father at this time being in command of Fort Leavenworth.

"In 1854 Mr. Beall came to California and entered the employ of the government, remaining at that service until 1861.
He constructed Fort Lapwai under Agent A. J. Cain in 1860, and was prominent in the Indian wars of which the Battle of Steptoe Butte was an event, himself being in that engagement and being in a large part responsible for saving from the Indians a government pack train.

"He mined in Montana and British Columbia and for many years conducted a ferry on the Clearwater river.

"Mr. Beall's grandfather was in command of Fort McHenry during the war of 1812 when Francis S. Key was inspired to write "The Star Spangled Banner."

"Mr. Beall is survived by relatives in the east.
"He was for a number of years justice of the peace. He was affiliated with the Elks and Knights of Pythias lodges."

and family on West Morgan

MISS RIECKE RECEIVES NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS

Miss Riecke, the local Red Cross nurse, has received the following New Year's greeting from the Washington office:

"My dear big family:
"Happy New Year! May good health, work that challenges and delights you, true friends and a happy home be yours thru the coming year! New Year's gives us another cherished opportunity to write to each member of our big family personally and to tell you how much we appreciate the splendid record our service has made this year because of you.
"It has warmed our hearts and made us glow with pride to watch the way in which you have put your best selves into your work in a spirit of high adventure, fine purpose and deep compassion.
Over and over again, we have learned that following the Master's example you have "gone about doing good." We have realized and regretted your difficulties and the many obstacles you have had to overcome or go around. Your humorous and high hearted acceptance of these trials as a part of the day's work proves that you enjoy tackling a hard job and sticking to it until you win out. Congratulations and may you have success!
"It has been a great year! We have no illusions that our service is nearly so good as we would have it or as we are going to make it in time, still we know that an abundance of good work has been accomplished. We know that you have been busy breaking new ground, building foundations and extending the range and effectiveness of your work thru the help of many interested volunteers. You have been eager to make your service a strong, fine living part of the country or the community life, understood, appreciated, used, promoted by all.
You have done much toward accomplishing this in the past year.
Doubtless you are hoping and expecting to do more in the coming year.

"Facing the new year, we rejoice that we are nurses, that we have a real task to do commanding all that is best in us, that we have unlimited opportunities to exercise every faculty and gift we possess and to gratify our desire to use our special knowledge and skill in the service of others.
Let us all go forward with courage, vision and high spirits, glad that we can take part in "The union of all who love
In the service of all who suffer.
"With warmest greetings and good wishes,
"Yours sincerely,
"Elizabeth A. Fox,
"Director, Red Cross Public Health Nursing Service."

TO THE FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE LATE MISS EMMA WELLER

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the Social Service League, a committee was appointed to draft resolutions pertaining to the passing of Miss Emma Weller to her Heavenly Home.

Miss Weller had been identified with the league as one of its directors since its organization and with the Associated Charities, its predecessor as superintendent, for a number of years. Some of the present members of the Board knew her in both capacities and appreciated her sterling qualities. Ever untiring in her efforts to relieve suffering, patient with the erring ones, and faithful in all duties pertaining to her office she performed a service in the community which was a recognized factor in the progress of social welfare work. When we think how she plodded about on her calls of mercy thru rain and snow, cold and heat, and suffered the inconveniences of small, dark office rooms, all for a mere pittance of a salary, we can fully realize that the spirit of true service was the impelling motive in Miss Weller's life. Quietly and unobtrusively she did her work, observed only by those who came in contact with her. And when there was much to do and no one to help, uncomplainingly she went on doing what she could. If pay day found an empty treasury, it mattered little, she waited patiently and slackened neither efforts nor zeal.

We may well learn a valuable lesson from such devotion to the cause of human need and public welfare. In these days of larger funds for the extension of social work, salaries are more adequate and forthcoming. This is only natural and proper, but the legacy which comes to us from the faithful volunteers or semi-volunteers of earlier days, is one that is worthy of careful investment. We shall miss the presence of Miss Weller in our midst and share the sorrow with those friends and relatives who mourn, by the memory of a life so well spent and now so richly rewarded.

Lucy C. Catlin,
Rev. W. E. Spoonst,
L. O. Vaught,
Committee.

EASTERN STAR ELECTED OFFICERS

At a recent meeting of the Eastern Star lodge the following officers were elected: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Minnie Haneline; W. R. Haneline; Assistant Matron, Mrs. Nellie Haneline; Secretary, Mrs. Lena Rahjohn; Treasurer, Mrs. Anna Moore; Conductress, Mrs. Abbie Spillman; Assistant Conductress, Mrs. Frances Edman. Those officers and the appointed officers will be installed at a meeting, Wednesday, Jan. 4th., at 8 p. m.

THE CHICAGO LIVE STOCK EXCHANGE

In consequence of the holiday, the packing house strike and other adverse influences, live stock markets are "off" their accustomed stride. Cattle has bordered on demoralization during the past week, necessitating action by The Chicago Live Stock Exchange to relieve congestion. The country promptly responded to advice to curtail supply until the crisis had passed. The Monday holiday was followed by a light run which proved ineffective as the dressed beef market is bad in need of a rest. After this week turkey scraps will be less in evidence giving the beef market a chance to recover. Swine and sheep trades are in better position than cattle, but every branch of the market is on an abnormal basis.

Eastern demand has been curtailed, spread of the butchers' strike in that quarter having been partly responsible. However, there is every reason for assuming that when killers down that way are able to operate freely they will again be on the market. The most effective method of nursing the cattle market back to a normal, healthy condition will be of restraining the flow of warmed-up steers, especially if they possess quality. The old crop of long-fed cattle has disappeared and the better condition short-feds can be put in the most satisfactory way will sell. Too many veneered steers, merely in feeder flesh have been marketed during the past six weeks, most of which could not be re-instated at the price they realized, especially if expense is taken into consideration. Dumping these cattle may be good judgment, but few people in the trade take that view of it.

Restricted marketing of hogs has given the price list a substantial advance, average cost recrossing the seven-cent line. Packers have been buying sparingly, and shipping demand has been curtailed but as the strike will naturally prevent packers from accumulating product in their cellars this month they will be under the necessity of buying freely when they are able to handle a normal supply. A choppy market may be expected until trade settles down to its winter gait. Meanwhile the big end of the new hog crop is being whittled down, a conviction growing that it will prove short in the fall end.

Live mutton markets are healthy, especially where lambs are concerned. Values are up about $1.50 per cwt. compared with the low spot early in December when the market broke under excessive offerings, attracted by the November boom. If lamb feeders will refrain from crowding stock on the market when prices shoot upward in similar manner it will be possible to preserve a reasonable degree of stability.

A drouth in Texas is sending a large number of sheep and lambs from that area to feed lots near Chicago, adding materially to the visible winter supply. This in turn will relieve the market of grass-fat Texas stuff nearly next spring when it usually acts as a price breaker. At present values bullish opinion is illogical hence caution should be exercised in buying feeders.

Western cattle herds have wintered finely so far, despite rigorous weather, as feed is abundant and cheap. War Finance Corporation loans have materially alleviated the financial situation in the grazing regions west of the Missouri river, and such disbursement is to be continued. Insuring progress with a gigantic re-stocking task that will require several years and an enormous amount of money in the aggregate.

Demand for wool continues healthy. All wool goods are firm and in the specific case of low scoured wools there has been a further advance of five to six cents per pound. Both manufacturers and dealers are in the trade realizing that the emergency tariff practically limits the visible supply to domestic wools and imported stock already in the country. Indications point to further advances in wool prices.

Sentiment in hide trade is optimistic. Packers have few hides to sell and altho tanners are balking they are confronted with the necessity of paying more money. This should benefit country hide trade which has been dull.

HAVE YOU EVER BEEN STUNG?

The Security Information Bureau of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce has offered four prizes for the four best articles on the subject "How I was Stung by a Stock Salesman." The prizes are $50, $25, $10 and $5. The judges are Louis L. Emmerson, secretary of state, Springfield; E. A. Daley, president of the Illinois Commercial Secretaries' association, Belleville, and James A. Davis, manager of the Advertisers and Investors' Protective bureau, Chicago. All the articles should be sent to the state chamber's headquarters, 10 South La Salle street Chicago, before Feb. 1, 1922. This is being done in order to bring to light typical schemes, whereby the good people of Illinois are being swindled out of their honest earnings. Many millions of dollars have been thrown away in this state thru the purchase of securities that were worthless. Your local Chamber of Commerce and the state chamber, hopes thru the co-operation of all the local Chambers of Commerce thruout the state, banks and other institutions, to make life so miserable for the fake stock salesman that he will leave Illinois.

Thru the Security Information Bureau of the state chamber, anyone can learn the standing of any security offered for sale in Illinois. Your local Chamber of Commerce will take up for you and investigate any security that is offered to you for sale and find out for you just what the rating it has.

Illinois has a good Blue Sky Law which is being enforced very efficiently thru the co-operation of our attorney general and our secretary of state. If every citizen would investigate before he would invest, sale of worthless securities in Illinois could be entirely stopped.

The Ford One-Ton Truck first made its appeal to the farmer and the merchant because of the merits of Ford Cars. And it made its wonderful reputation and great sales record because it lived up to every claim made for it.

The reliable Ford Motor, the special Ford steel chassis, the aluminum bronze worm-drive, all combine to produce a truck of unusual power, capacity and strength—a truck that lasts in service; a truck that solves the haulage problem at a very small operating and upkeep expense. Hence the demand for the Ford One-Ton Truck is constantly on the increase.

For the good of your business, whether it be farming, merchandising or manufacturing, you should come in and look over the Ford One-Ton Truck—NOW!

IMPORTANT

LITTLE INTEREST IN STOCK BARKETS

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—The brief trading period which marked the close of the year on the stock exchange developed no features of especial interest.
Standard issues, both rails and industrials, once more gave way to specialties, some of these being strong, while others became irregular or reactionary. Reversals of one to two points among investment stocks were generally retrieved in the short covering of the final hour sugars and textiles then being most prominent.
Bull pools separated the windup of the year by aggressive tactics in stocks, including some of the more secure issues. Among these were Phillips Jones which rose thirteen points on nominal dealings. Sales amounted to 400,000 shares. The bond market also was devoid of striking features, altho relatively more active than stocks realizing for profits caused moderate ease among Liberty and Victory issues and the domestic list moved sluggishly. Total sales (par value) aggregated $8-275,000.

British exchange held around yesterday's final quotations, but most continental rates were substantially higher. Guilders or the Dutch rate were strongest of the neutrals presumably in consequence of the announcement that the government had appropriated four per cent. of the proposed $100,000,000 issue to an American banking syndicate.

The clearing house statement showed few important changes, considering the heavy transfer of funds incidental to the year's end. Actual loans and discounts increased by $53,000,000 and another cash contraction of $11-200,000 reduced excess reserves to barely more than $17,000,000.
